

Your sponsorship will support studio access for artists to create and use printed materials to further culture and engage with communities across Chicago.

OUR MISSION

Founded on the premise that art should be a democratic and empowering medium, Spudnik Press Cooperative is committed to being an approachable and affordable print shop; a space where professional printmakers merge with aspiring students; a space that encourages collaboration and the sharing of ideas.

OUR IMPACT

In 2017, we reached over 4,500 Chicagoans, including 550 youth. 500 people enrolled in 85 classes and workshops. We hosted 8 fellows, 3 resident artists, 7 exhibitions. Over 200 artists logged 728 Open Studio visits.

BAD WEDDING

Saturday, October 20, 2018

We expect over 175 supporters from across Chicago to come together for a night celebrating the continued growth of Spudnik and featuring incredible art from our community.

Notes and/or requests:

The late afternoon sunshine slanting through the loft windows, the random “ka-thunking” of the presses, the smell of ink, the hissing of the power washer, the noisy chaos of the risograph—it all makes Spudnik feel like the right place to make art.
